Okoronkwo is scooting along under the radar because he's not 6 feet 3 and 250 plus pounds. But if he measures in somewhere between 6 0 and 6 1 and hits the 240 pound mark, he'll have ideal size to be a low center of gravity outside linebacker at the NFL level who routinely wins with speed, pass rushing moves and the envied ability to flatten to the quarterback. In his final year in Norman, he showcased stout edge setting ability against the run too, lending credence to the idea that he has value beyond seeing the field in pass rushing sub packages..
