Because when you ball, you get the call: Deion does in locker room FaceTime interviews each Sunday with the players who had big days. These aren't the most cleanly produced segments, but they do provide the kind of access football fans rarely get, with the players usually laughing and enjoying themselves, often passing the phone around like they're on a call with a relative. The players clearly care about being asked to FaceTime with Deion I love watching these millionaires clamor for the free t shirt that comes along with the appearance and in a media landscape where a real concern with highlights and athletes is overexposure, NFL Prime manages to still seem special and feel like must watch TV..
