To the Arron Rodgers apologists on here, riddle me this. When he slips those over inflated balls past the officials does he use them? With all this talk of insuring the integrity of the game, once he takes a snap with that fat ball he's guilty as the day is long. His intent is to get illegals ball into the game.

I admit I wanted Marrone to stay, but that was mostly for continuity and building off a 9 7 record. His offensive coordinator is an average college coordinator and in completely over his head one is disappointed to see him go (good luck with him Jets fans). Losing Schwartz without bringing in a defensive mind like Rex Ryan or Dan Quinn would be a much bigger step backwards than losing Marrone.
