He is considered to be the greatest football coach in Golden Bears' history.[10] He is famous for his defense oriented strategy of "kick and wait for the breaks".[10] in 1925 with his University of California 10 year record of 74 wins, 16 losses and 7 ties, Smith remained Cal's most winning coach until he got surpassed by Jeff Tedford in 2011.[11][12] During his time California won three NCAA recognized national titles,[13] four Pacific Coast Conference championships and made three trips to the Rose Bowl. In 1921 it shutout Ohio State 28 0. In 1922 and while swimming in mud, it tied the huge underdog College Presidents 0 0, for the sole tie in Rose Bowl history.

"Of course 1 am thinking about all scenarios. I know Red Bull can build the best car out there and we have shown that in the last two races. We are on the way back and in the last two races we have shown that our car in the races is really, really competitive..

Description: The Quest for Truth chronicles the allegorical journey of Youngblood Hawke as he is transformed from a self serving soldier of fortune to a warrior prince. Presented with the question and challenge of absolute truth by a mystical sage, Hawke's inability to respond is an epiphany to him and marks the beginning of his struggle and quest. Guided by a beautiful oracle, he is introduced to the teachings of Socrates, Plato, Aristotle, Sun Tzu, Machiavelli, Nietzsche, Jose Ortega, Shakespeare, and William James spoken through mentors, sages, and prophets.
