A non Rodgers story to keep an eye on in this one is the surprising competency of the Saints' defense. From an expected points per game standpoint, New Orleans' pass defense ranks 14th and its run defense ranks 18th in the league so far. That might not sound like much, but considering how often the Saints' defense has let down QBDrew Brees in the past, this is an interesting development that could keep the Saints relevant deep into the season.
