Here, for the first time, General Clark uses his unique life experience from his difficult youth in segregated Arkansas where he was raised by his poor, widowed mother; through the horror of Vietnam where he was wounded; the post war rebuilding of national security and the struggles surrounding the new world order after the Cold War as a springboard to reveal his vision for America, at home and in the world. General Clark will address issues such as foreign policy, the economy, the environment, education and health care, family, faith, and the American dream. Rich with breathtaking battle scenes, poignant personal anecdote and eye opening recommendations on the best way forward, General Clark's new book is a tour de force of gripping storytelling and inspiring vision..
