Go into most physically active peoples dorm rooms here on campus and you'll find Gatorade or some other sports drinks or go to an intramural game and you'll probably find someone drinking Gatorade. With many different flavors to choose from, the media brought attention, and the supposed great effects of Gatorade, I don't blame you for choosing it as a drink of choice for while you do some physical activity because I used to be the same way but for most exercising, water is better. I myself was an athlete and drank Gatorade a lot but I truthfully never felt a difference between water and Gatorade.
