Darnold made the expected announcement in an Instagram video Wednesday. Josh Rosen also announced he will enter the draft, bringing an end to a two year era of remarkable quarterback play at two schools about 12 miles apart in Los Angeles. Both local products are expected to be high first round selections in April. Darnold took over as the Trojans' starting quarterback four games into last season as a redshirt freshman and immediately became one of the most exciting players in college football. He won nine consecutive games as a starter last season, including a thrilling 52 49 Rose Bowl victory over Penn State with a record 453 yard, five touchdown performance. Although he struggled with fumbles and interceptions this season, he still led the Trojans to their first Pac 12 championship since 2008. Ohio State beat USC 24 7 in the Cotton Bowl last week in a quiet farewell for Darnold, who passed for 356 yards but also lost two fumbles to give him an FBS leading 22 turnovers this season. Darnold passed for 7,229 yards with 57 touchdown passes and 22 interceptions in just 27 games behind center for the Trojans, going 20 4 as a starter. In his announcement video, the quarterback praised USC coach Clay Helton, who was the Trojans' quarterbacks coach when Darnold arrived on campus in 2015 before taking over as head coach during that redshirt season.
