It amazing how the league is simply dishonest or disorganized about absolutely everything. First, they said it was a random check. Then, we find out it wasn random and there was a bunch of other checks going on. Detroit was limited to making fringe upgrades around their core of Drummond, Jackson and Harris. Bradley was one of those upgrades, when the Celtics were clearing cap space to sign Gordon Hayward. The Pistons lost Marcus Morris in that trade, but they had Stanley Johnson ready to step in at the forward spot next to Harris..
