Foles put up the performance of his career on Sunday. I'll take the team with the greatest head coach/quarterback combination in NFL history against the team with its backup QB in the lineup. With Brady, the Patriots have the ability to play from well behind and still win.

Florio's take: Way back in September, the Seahawks raised their first championship banner and then dismantled the Packers, winning by 20. This time around, Packers quarterback Aaron Rodgers (who chased the R E L A X moment with an M V P season) is playing on a pogo stick, thanks to an injured calf that has limited his uncanny mobility. While that could be balanced out by a willingness to throw at cornerback Richard Sherman's side of the field (unlike the first time around), it can't be enough to overcome one of the best craig watts jersey defenses of the past generation in a place where it becomes harder and harder to win as the stakes get higher and higher.
