The question im putting out there in this post, Is wilt the greatest athlete ever in the nba? in my opinion he is, and I believe this because he had an insane verticle leap for a man his size, he had power lifter strength, and had amazingly quick feet in the post. I heard a story saying when wilt was at the end of his career with the lakers, he was I believe 35 or 36, weighed 330 pounds and had bad knees, he could still at this time grab a quarter off the top of the backboard. That story is still to this day difficult for me to wrap my brain around.
