In ross martin jersey 2014, Owen Good of Polygon wrote that "few other games in any genre have remained a constant part of modern conversation despite not publishing in a decade, and with no sign ever of returning". He called NFL 2K5 "sports video gaming's King Arthur, eternally populist, noble and heroic, champion of an age long ago enough to make its triumphs soar and its shortcomings recede to nothingness". Good stated that Madden NFL's developers "for 10 years have been haunted by NFL 2K5 in forums, in comments, in social media that nothing they do could be as good as something that by now really isn't a video game, but a mythological ideal that grows more romantic with every year".[9].

"The people here know me," says Butler. "I may rub people the wrong way at times, but you know me. I never mean anything malicious by it. Schnatter's assertion has since been disputed by other companies that advertise during NFL games, which includes other competitors. During a similar call with analysts, Greg Creed, CEO of Yum! Brands, which owns Pizza Hut, said that they had seen no such negative impact. Likewise, companies like Kohl's have said that they have no plans to change how much they advertise with the NFL, and that the protests haven't change their respective relationships with the league.
