In the second leg of the teaser, if the first two weeks are any indication, one Mason Crosby field goal could be all it takes for the Packers to hold up their end of the bargain. They are dealing with a lengthy injury report, and the Bengals do come with extra time to prepare (and a new offensive coordinator) after last Thursday night's debacle against the Texans, but it's difficult to ignore that Green Bay is the far superior team with a significant home field advantage. For anyone looking for the Packers to do little more than win outright, it should be all smiles at Lambeau Field come the final whistle..
