Make a trip across the pond and see how much bigger we are than Europeans. I've been to Europe several times on business. I feel like a giant walking around in London. Stop the debate as to whether children who love playing video games should be encouraged to continue or should they be stopped. Several people think children need to play video games because they make them active, but still, numerous other people also believe video games are not good for children. Despite the fact that other people think video games are healthy for children, I strongly believe they are bad for them.
