In regard to building muscle, what are the fastest, strongest, people (male and female) on the planet doing? Nope, not the bodybuilders or the cute fitness models you see in the popular fitness magazines. Rather, Olympic champions, NFL football players, boxers, top track and field athletes, hockey players, UFC fighters, and other great athletes. How did they get so strong, fast and powerful? WHAT exactly are they doing? LETS DO THAT! Wait, isn't there a dangerous lack of congruency here for an untrained 55 year old man or woman with a bad back? Actually no; the methods are absolutely scalable (intensity and volume) and advanced progressions are there for the taking.
