Description: This book offers a new critical perspective on the perpetual problem of literature's relationship to reality and in particular on the sustained tension between literature and historiography. Sebald (1944 2001) serve as striking examples for this discussion, for the way in which they demonstrate the emergence of a new hybrid discourse of literature as historiography. This book critically reconsiders the claims and aims of historiography by re evaluating core questions of the literary discourse and by assessing the ethical imperative of literature in the 20th and 21st centuries.
