The players to pick this yearThere are a handful of proven players who offer good value this season. Wayne Rooney looks like a must have for the starting fixtures (since he's cheaper than his team mate Robin van Persie), while Olivier Giroud and Wilfried Bony are solid choices. Man City's Dzeko, Aguero and Jovetic could all come good, but until we know for sure which of them will start (Aguero may be rested after the World Cup) it may be best to wait and see.

Brown chose not to return to Ohio State after the war, going into professional football instead. Widdoes, despite having the highest two year winning percentage of any Buckeye coach, asked to return to an assistant's position. Offensive coordinator Paul Bixler and Widdoes switched positions, and Bixler endured a mediocre 4 3 2 season.
