This early morning game is a surprisingly important contest. The Ravens are locked in a tight, two horse race with the Steelers for the AFC North crown and will be a strong wild card candidate if they can't top Pittsburgh. Meanwhile, the Jaguars' postseason hopes were shredded last week not only because they lost to the Titans, but because of how they lost to the Titans..

Despite this, the challenge in which Nuno Valente appeared to commit an Eric Cantona style spinning bird kick into the chest of Arjen Robben went unpunished. Ivanov had already blown for an (incorrect) offside decision against Dirk Kuyt. But the fact that Valente leaving his studs in Robben's sternum resulted in no action given the general trigger happy distribution of cards is flabbergasting.
