In 1998, White was named the NFL Defensive Player of the Year for the second time.[29]In 2000, he came out of a one year retirement and started all 16 games for the Carolina Panthers. White had five and a half sacks and one forced fumble while with the team. (He has since been surpassed by Bruce Smith, who has 200.) Counting his time in the USFL, White has 221.5 sacks in professional football, making him professional football's all time sacks leader.

"My position is that the owners expect me to be the ombudsman for them, as to this committee," Jones said. "No one has the NFL's best interest in mind more than me, and I'm doing what I was asked to do by the owners. I don't see how you can be disciplined for that.".

As far as the draft I think it is a very solid Cards draft. It would be near impossible to pass up on Patrick Peterson if he were available at 5 as he probably the most talented prospect in the entire draft. Pairing Peterson up with DRC would definitely form one of the most exciting and ball hawking secondary in the NFL.
