I don think he acted but I don think it should have been flagged despite how bad it looked. Burfict is a big fast man and he entitled to hit brown. He came with a shoulder and brown ducked into it. In today's world, there is always a magazine, newspaper, website, article, etc., that has some kind of test that aims at telling you what kind of person you are or what kind of personality you have. Regardless of whether it is the Myers Briggs test or a hundred or so question test in Readers' Digest, these tests do have some merit in giving you an idea about what you are like as a person. The problem, however, is that these tests have too much assumed credibility.

So let me get this straight people commenting here believe The NFL were 100% out to get Elliott? Why? Logic doesn follow on this for me. This means they fabricated information and excluded other information to suspend one of the NFL biggest stars??? I simply don believe that. It hurts ratings for The Cowboys and The NFL in general.
