He just needs to work out the kinks. Some of his throws are unbelievable and surely he and his teammates have no quit in them just like the pats. I don know I thinking maybe their coaching need something to improve too. Texans running back Arian Foster, who is currently recovering from a torn Achilles tendon, may want to kneel on the ground in a moment of quiet reflection if he returns to the field and scores a touchdown next year. Foster, however, has said that he doesn believe in God. So because he not religious, his kneeling on the ground after a touchdown would be a penalty, whereas a religious player kneeling on the ground is not.
