The Indians established an AL postseason record by using seven pitchers in a nine inning win. None of those arms not Bauer, or Dan Otero, or Jeff Manship, Zach McAllister, Bryan Shaw, Cody Allen or Andrew Miller recorded more than five outs. That made Cleveland the first team in playoff history to win a game without a pitcher lasting two innings..

Centers shouldn't be the center of attentionIf there's one position you can afford to wait on in fantasy hockey, it's center. Based on Yahoo's positional eligibility, here's how center depth stacks up against defense depth in terms of points from last season:RankEven the 50th ranked center racked up 50 points, whereas the 50th ranked defenseman only tallied 33. Unless they make up for it in other categories, a player getting you only 33 points is essentially a waste of space.
