Cam Newton (at JAC): We're expecting the Panthers to lean on the run game this week, which makes sense given Carolina's receiving corps. Rookie Devin Funchess isn't ready to be a significant contributor in light of the Benjamin injury, and although Greg Olsen is a standout tight end, the game plan should not be featured around Corey Brown and Ted Ginn. Newton could always make plays running the ball, so keep that in mind, but the Jaguars actually closed last season by allowing just one quarterback to throw multiple touchdowns in their final six games, including Luck, Eli Manning and Flacco.
