The meeting in 1969 is the true Game of the Century commemorating the 100th year of college football, which led to the Longhorns' 1969 national championship. This game still does not sit well with Razorback fans to this day.[30] The game saw Arkansas lead throughout only to have Texas come from behind and win in the final minutes, 15 14. The game also saw former President Richard Nixon attend the game and crown the Longhorns the National Champion in the locker room.
