Luckily for Tampa Bay, the franchise was able to do just that and Murray has been an incredibly dangerous and consistent weapon for the Bucs all season long.

"Hypothetically, if you knew you were going to die and you had one last lecture, what would you say to your students?" That is how Professor Randy Pausch, from Carnegie Mellon, began his last lecture, a speech entitled "Really Achieving Your Childhood Dreams" while in fact he was dying of Pancreatic Cancer. He knew he only had months left to live and put together this last lecture to read to his students. His lecture focuses in on points such as the importance of: making sincere apologies, not whining, being gracious and being humble.
