When the 1990 election took place that April, Warner won with three times as many votes as the incumbent, an elderly Mexican with diabetes. Warner immediately appointed Blazer general secretary, charged with running the confederation's day to day operations.

Quit selling yourself. I used to hate it when Dan Dierdorff used to pounce on the losing team and bash them. How many of us have turned down the sound of the TV and turned on the radio (no matter how much of a delay) to drown out the Dierdorff on the networks? I know I not the only one. If you cutting the cord frankie hammond jersey on cable, over the air HD in my local market for NFL games just plain out sucks and I live 5 miles from the transmitter with a powered antenna.
