And they will. Ravens fans are blessed with Ossie and the privilege of seeing their team in the top tier year after year. Even with this recent exodus, Ravens still have a roster ranked in the top ten. I still don know what roughing the passer is. In the Buccaneers Lions game, Detroit defensive tackle Nick Fairley hit Buccaneers quarterback Mike Glennon in the leg and was called for roughing the passer. According to the referee, it was because Fairley hit Glennon too low.

Johnson is kind of known as a below the rim big man, with the combine showing some of the reason why this may be. The young UK big man finished last in both vertical leap tests and in the sprint. He certainly is an imposing presence and has some low post scoring ability with good hands as well.

New England has had a long time to stew over went wrong in the second half of the season opener and should be fully expected to rebound with the full wrath of Tom Brady. What will facilitate him being Brady again is a still putrid New Orleans defense playing host on a short week. But as well as Brady, Gronk and former Saint Brandin Cooks will get going, the defensive issues won't totally go away in a shootout with Drew Brees.
