I disagree. The plan to expand is selfish and unsympathetic to the "real" assets of the game, which are the players who put their bodies on the line week in and week out. Not only will it increase the chance of injuries, but it will also cause future suffering to the players after their football careers.

Be honest, I don really care about how I did as an individual, said Hart. Definitely one of the best games to be a part of in my life. It one of the best days of my life. They're just not congregating by the traditional outlets. They're just not quite registering as clearly when they're gathering around someone else's cell phone for the race. Or when they're gawking at the game playing on the big screen in the department store, protest be damned. breno giacomini jersey
