Giles is a wildcard for the draft as he has come back in late December and struggled to show much explosiveness off his surgically repaired knee(s). Giles was once seen as a likely top 3 pick, but concerns about his knees have his stock falling. He's still likely to be a lottery pick, but he'll need to get back closer to where he was during his high school career when he was one of the most dynamic big men to emerge in years in order to restore team's confidence in his potential.

With the creation of new rules and new teams is when its fan base and popularity grew. It became a huge moneymaker for our country, becoming America's most popular sport to watch. It started out as quite a dangerous game because of the lack of protection for its players and the way the game was played.
