Langlois: They aren't exactly "standing pat" with Harris at the four, as we've discussed. They're actively looking to get the best power forward they can find. As for a trade, I wouldn't rule it out. These stories are valuable to the many descendents of South Texas' German settlers. History records the accomplishments of their men, but the women of the families also carry an important story bygone routines that kept homes running, raised children, and built community. Another caveat to postseason overtime should be added. If the team that wins the toss chooses to kick, the receiving team wins with any score. That the way it already should be; the team winning the toss has the chance to possess the ball. Rather than sign with the Vikings George signed a four year contract worth $14.8 million with the Washington Redskins as Brad Johnson's backup.[2] Johnson went down in week 9; George replaced him, and went 1 2 in the next three games. Johnson returned, but played poorly against the New York Giants. George replaced him and started two games, both losses, after Norv Turner was fired in favor of interim coach Terry Robiskie.
